

Volunteer to Career (V2C) Program

The NSW Rural Fire Service in conjunction with the Rural Fire Service Association will again be conducting the V2C in 2014.

The V2C program was developed to assist volunteer members wanting to pursue a salaried career with the NSW RFS. Topics include:

- The types of positions typically available in the NSW RFS
- How to make yourself more competitive for these jobs
- How to apply for positions under the NSW Government processes
- What typical NSW RFS jobs involve

The program will be held at the Cumberland Fire Control Centre, 8-12 Jeanette Street Regentville, on 24-25 May 2014

Apply / nominate online through your training centre in MyRFS. Alternatively you can download the application form at www.myrfs.nsw.gov.au.

Contact Selena Marretta on 02 8741 4939 or workforce.planning@rfs.nsw.gov.au for further information.

Expressions of interest close two weeks prior to the program.

Late applications may be accepted if vacancies remain.

www.rfs.nsw.gov.au

RFS

